THE THINKING GARDEN by B.C. filmmaker, Christine Welsh

Winner of the Matrix Award, Vancouver Women in Film Festival 2017 and the sole Canadian film chosen for presentation at the 2018 United Nations Women's Film Festival in Amman, Jordan.

As St. Paul's joins the global celebration of the Season of Creation (Sept 1 to Oct 4) - a movement of prayer and action to protect creation - we present to you this inspiring story of resilience.

The Revd Philip Cochrane, rector of St. Paul's will open the evening with a brief introduction about this movement.

The Thinking Garden is a film about three generations of older women in a village in South Africa, who came together in the dying days of apartheid to create a community garden.

The film's cinematographer and editor, Moira Simpson, will be in attendance to answer questions after the screening.

Donations from this screening will go to the grandmothers in South Africa, to support their community garden.
