At the beginning of this period, the principal liturgical service took the form of Morning Prayer on three Sundays of the month and Choral Eucharist on one Sunday. At the end of the period the Eucharist was celebrated every Sunday. The use of Morning Prayer as the principal liturgy was discontinued in 1995.

Lit1.01-12 Centennial Eucharist, 25 June 1989

On 25 June 1989, a Eucharist was celebrated to mark the centennial of the establishment of the parish in 1889. The celebrant, David Crawley, used the 1662 Book of Common Prayer and adopted a north-end position at the altar, as would have been the practice in 1889.
